

Centaurs Group Integrity Policy

Last Updated: May 2023

Centaurs Sports operate within a Code of Conduct that prioritises enjoyment, safety, and respect.

In line with the principles of team sport (including honesty, positivity, fairness, integrity and teamwork) we ask that all members of our community uphold and demonstrate such values - especially within the context of grassroots sport, for kids and youth, promoting a love of sport for life.

By affiliating with Centaurs, you agree to defend this “Integrity Policy” regarding all volunteers, referees, umpires, coaching staff, groundsman, opponents, supporters, parents, and players, at Centaurs-hosted/home events and away.

Violations of this policy would follow this chain of escalation:

Ask to cease the behaviour and / or leave the venue (this may be followed by a written warning)

Temporary suspension from attending Centaurs sports events

Being asked to leave the Club, which sadly affects the child member too, with no refund of fees

We hope to never implement such consequences within our community, but will not hesitate to do so for the protection of junior sport and the happiness, safety and wellbeing of our members.
